BEVERAGE LIST

WELCOME TO SOFIA'S

Our coastal Italian menu has something for every occasion and is all about enjoying simple and delicious food with your favourite people.

We combine Italian flavours and techniques, using the best imported and Australian ingredients. It is with this in mind that we have curated our beverage list.

We have carefully considered each and every wine and spirit in this list, working with our team of suppliers to bring you some of the finest Italian wines. In addition to the Italian selection we have gathered for you to enjoy, we have collected some of the most iconic Australian wines, as well as some lesser known gems.

As a small, family owned business, we believe it is important to support other small businesses across Australia. The vast majority of wines we have sourced come from family owned wineries.

Finally, we believe a truly great culinary experience comes from exploration and exiting your comfort zone. We encourage you to ask questions, try new things, and hopefully, find your new favourite delight with us.

ITALIAN WHITE WINES

Located near Verona is Soave, the wines from here are made from the grape Garganega. The wines are light and textured, the better examples offering a generous oiliness on the palate.

The three regions synonymous with Pinot Grigio, Alto Adige and Friuli are cooler and produces high quality wines with excellent fresh acidity.

Marche's best known wine is Pecorino. Named after the sheep, it was said that the pecorino grapes were a favourite of theirs due to its early ripening.

Home to great Vermentino, often carries a saline note and pairs wonderfully with seafood.

CHARDONNAY (CONTINUED...)

BY FARR

The Farr Estate is located in the Moorabool Valley between Geelong and Ballarat. After purchasing the original vineyard in 1994, both Gary and Nick Farr have developed reputations for their precise and expressive wines. Each year the release of their wines is eagerly anticipated. Here at Sofias, it is their Chardonnays in particular that have really captured our hearts and imaginations. Each year we hold a few bottles back, and with careful cellaring, we are excited to watch these wines develop for us all to enjoy in years to come.

ITALIAN RED WINES

Piedmonte is home to some of the most food friendly wines Italy has to offer. With Nebbiolo wines such as Barbaresco or the King of Wines Barolo, Piedmonte is a Mecca for wine lovers all over the world.

The region of Valpolicella is special indeed, creating a fantastic array of wines from a blend of grape varieties. By utilizing the Appassimento technique the typically light and fragrant wines can transform into something rich and decadent.

Possibly the best known Italian region is Tuscany. Home to the Sangiovese grape found in Chianti. Within Tuscany there is the region of Bolgheri that is responsible to the Italian Wine rebellion and the production of the so called Super Tuscan.

Puglia is known for its fruit forward reds due to its warm dry climate. It is home to the Primitivo Grape that is loved for its dark fruit and ripe tannins

Italy's warmest region, Sicily specialises in varieties almost exclusively grown on the Island. Neroello Mascalese found in Mt Etna red wines maintains its bright fruit and acidity despite the heat and offers drinkers light and fragrant wine that is suited to so many Italian dishes.

SASSICAIA - THE ORIGINAL SUPER TUSCAN

Sassicaia was the brain child of Marchese Mario Incisa della Rocchetta, who planted Cabernet Sauvignon at the Tenuta San Guido estate back in 1944. Having grown up in a noble Italian family, he had become fond of the great wines of Bordeaux. With this in mind, he set about producing a wine of this style and quality for his personal consumption. The early wines were nothing truly special until in 1968, with the help of his friend and winemaker Giacomo Tachis, they produced the first vintage they felt was ready for commercial release.

Although the wines were initially met with a lot of shock and backlash from the Italian traditionalists, the international acclaim meant that the idea of the Super Tuscan soon prevailed, and Sassicaia was awarded its own DOC in 1994.

AUSTRALIAN "ITALIAN" VARIETALS

Australia produces wines from a large array of different varietals, but it is the Italian grape varieties that have really thrived. In almost every region across Australia, you will find native Italian varieties, all producing fantastic quality wines with a distinctly "Aussie" personality

2023	Lino Ramble "Pee Wee" Nero d'Avola	McLaren Vale, SA	65
2023	Villa Fresco Sangiovese	King Valley, Vic	60
2021	Elderslie Nebbiolo	Adelaide Hills, SA	115
2022	Haselgrove Barbera	McLaren Vale, SA	75
2021	Berrigan "Shining Rock" Sangiovese	Adelaide Hills, SA	85
	"Dan Berrigan risked everything after he fell in love with a vineyard in the Adelaide Hills. After selling his house to fund the sale, and living in a caravan at the vineyard for a year, it is safe to say Dan's risk paid off. This Sangiovese has received rave reviews and rightly so; rich and powerful fruit, coupled with dried herbs makes this a serious "Sango" indeed.

GRENACHE

Australia is quickly developing a reputation for producing some of the best grenache in the world. Being able to stake claim to some of the oldest grenache vines in existence, and with their love of sunlight and warm climates, the South Australian examples are certainly worth a spot at the table,

2021	Ox Hardy Grenache	McLaren Vale, SA	85
2022	Teusner 'Joshua' (Grenache, Mataro, Shiraz)	Barossa Valley, SA	105

"The Man, The Myth, The Legend. Kym Teusner has long been one of the biggest characters in the Barossa Valley, always wanting to push the boundaries of what Grenache can do. He created the brother and sister wines of Joshua & Avatar. Joshua sees no oak in the wine making process and shows bright elegant fruit; compared to the oak heavy Avatar that is rich and decadent."
